The Guardian Angles

The Guardian Angels is a non-profit international volunteer organization dedicated to unarmed crime prevention. Here are some key points about them:

Origins and History

- Founded: The Guardian Angels were founded on February 13, 1979, in New York City by Curtis Sliwa.
- Purpose: Initially created to combat violence and crime on the New York City

Subway system, the organization has since expanded to over 130 cities and 13 countries worldwide.

Activities and Structure

- Safety Patrols: The primary activity of the Guardian Angels is conducting safety patrols. Members walk the streets or ride transit to deter crime and assist citizens.

- Uniform: Members are easily recognizable by their red berets and red jackets or white T-shirts with the Guardian Angels logo.

- Training: Volunteers are trained in first aid, CPR, law, conflict resolution, communication, and basic martial arts. They are prohibited from carrying weapons and are physically searched by each other before patrolling.

Community Programs

- Youth Programs: The Guardian Angels offer programs for youth, including mentoring and positive leadership initiatives.
- Disaster Response: They are involved in disaster response efforts and provide self-defense courses and community outreach programs.

- CyberAngels: An Internet safety program aimed at protecting individuals online.

The Guardian Angels strive to foster safer, stronger, and more compassionate communities through their volunteer-driven initiatives. They emphasize empowering individuals to take constructive action to solve social problems and improve community safety.
